Bio

Amanda is driven to help her clients reach extraordinary results. She does this through exploring key principles of effectiveness, and supporting the alignment of these to a greater understanding of self embedding strategies of execution along the way. Amanda's success lies in her ability to connect quickly and authentically with her audience, and does so easily, regardless of size and make up.

Amanda has experience working as a consultant in public, private and not for profit sectors. She has spent much of her system level experience developing projects for the Department of Education WA's Leadership Strategy. Amanda is now is a key facilitator for many organisations and is often contacted to consult on strategy implementation, leadership and team development .

In addition to her consultant role, Amanda is a member of a public school board and not for profit groups. Her values to support and connect are lived in both personal and professional settings. Based in Perth, Amanda has travelled for work all across Australia and has built many successful networks along the way.
